

San Diego-Imperial USATF Officials Certification Clinic

Sponsored by the Youth Committee

Sunday, February 19, 2017 9:00AM

Orange Glen High School Track

2200 Glenridge Road, Escondido, CA 92027

Order of the Day

1. Welcome, Goals, Introductions
2. USATF Certification Process
3. Philosophy of Officiating
4. Officiating the Track Events/Umpires/Marshals
5. Starting/FAT/Finish Line/Wind Gauge/Announcer
6. Officiating Field Events
7. Officiating the Jumps
8. Lunch Break – (light lunch will be provided)
9. Officiating the Throws
10. Summary, Questions, Next Steps
11. USATF written rules review and open book exam

Things you will need before you become a Certified Official:

1. USATF Membership, Background check, Safe Sports. Please bring proof to the clinic.
2. Official Certification application
3. Submit a photo of yourself via e-mail and forward to the Official Certification chair
4. $20 certification fee
5. Complete the open book exam

All items should be completed prior to leaving.

Recommended Items to Bring to the Clinic

1. Clip Board and pen/pencil
2. USATF Competition Rule Book – A limited number of 2016 rule books may be available for purchase ($5) or you can download the USATF Rule book to your phone or electronic device.

Resources: <https://my.usatfofficials.com/resources>

Contact: Elizabeth Tate, flojo99@cox.net

The Primary Concern at All Times for all Officials is: SAFETY!